

McGee's 303 Annotation Outline Form

Name: _____

Date: _____

RA#: _____

Text title: _____

Author: _____

Publication information:

3 Important Background Notes:

-

-

-

Level 1: What does the text say? (Summary)

Level 2: What does the text mean?

Level 2, A: Major themes or messages:

Level 2, B: Literary Analysis (Rhetoric):

Level 3: How can I relate to the text?

Level 3, A: Relationship to other texts:

Level 3, B: Relationship to me and my world:

The Room 303 Big 5 Annotations:

#1: Epistemology (Views on knowledge: Absolutist; Relativist; Fallibilist):

#2: Ontology (Views on Being: Body; Mind; Spirit):

#3: Psychology (Views on motivations of the individual):

#4: Sociology (Views on motivations of the group):

#5: Theodicy (Views on the value of pain-suffering):

The Room 303 Seven Cardinal Virtues Annotations:

CV#1: Wisdom: (Using your knowledge in meaningful-respectful ways):

CV#2: Courage: (Doing the wise thing even when it is hard):

CV#3: Discipline: (Having the patience to finish what you start):

CV#4: Justice: (Respecting others the way you would like to be respected):

CV#5: Faith: (Acting-believing without full knowledge of all the consequences):

CV#6: Hope: (The attitude that things will turn out okay in the end):

CV#7: Love: (To recognize yourself in all being; all being in yourself):